The January meeting of the Senate was brief. The appointment list for the professorship Natural Hazards and Structural Resilience was approved.

3.2. Meeting with the new President of the university

The new president will start in office at the end of March. He will act without vice-presidents until June, because he first wants to get to know the personnel. He is thinking about four vice presidents. At the beginning he would like to get to know each professor.

3.3. StuKo

We are looking for 1 student per faculty to participate in the design of the celebration of the anniversary of the first Bauhaus exhibition in 1923.

One person is being sought from the FsR to participate in planning this year's retreat. The retreat will be planned two weeks after the election, the date will be coordinated soon. Sarah is already volunteering for this task.

Two students from each faculty will be sought for the Elections Committee.
One student from each faculty will be sought for the Elections Committee.

These individuals will be sought by 01/23-23.

The StuKo is again announcing the teaching award. Helping hands are needed for this. Christian and Rebecca will sign up for this.

For the Student Lifecycle System project we are looking for a student who represents the opinion of the students. This project group will have another meeting in May.

3.4. Examination board

The Examination Committee again discussed the burden placed on students during examination periods.

4. News from the study programs

The students from the NHRE program ask if there is an event where international students can come into contact with German students.

The idea is a competition in building bridges out of spaghetti or something similar. The idea is accepted as positive, it is not clear yet who can take over the organization.
